- DIVERSION – the stage of the juvenile justice system which offers alleged juvenile offenders an opportunity to avoid arrest and/or prosecution by providing alternatives to the formal juvenile justice system process. The goal is to provide services and/or informal sanctions to youth who have begun to engage in antisocial and low level delinquent behavior in an effort to prevent youth from continuing on a delinquent pathway.
 - Family Crisis Intervention Unit
 - Diversion Groups
 - Conflict resolution groups for youth
 - Family strengthening programs
 - Anger management groups
 - Station House Adjustment Programs
 - Services must serve youth ages 11-17
 - Bilingual and translation services

It is anticipated that the Juvenile Justice Funding will remain at level funding. However, should the County receive notification of a reduction in State or Federal funds, 2017 funding and/or future funding through this initiative may be reduced or terminated. Morris County will not be responsible for replacing or maintaining funding levels in the event that any possible reductions occur in the 2017 allocation process.

This public funding may only be billed for a specific unit of service when there is no third party insurance, Medicare, Medicaid or any other type of reimbursement, in whole or in part, for that service unit.

The County of Morris reserves the right to renew Subgrant agreements for the period of January 1, 2018 through December 31, 2018, based upon annual program review and the availability of funding.

Contact Jessica Mondino at 973-285-6850 or jmondino@co.morris.nj.us with any questions.

Reminder: All 2017 applications due to MCDHS, 30 Schuyler Place, Morristown, by 4 p.m., June 30, 2016.
